Event name

Mid-Autumn Festival and International National Costume Day

Activity goal

- Understand the Chinese traditional Mid-Autumn Festival.
- Understand the different cultures of different countries.
- Understand the clothing of various countries through different senses.
- Learn to respect and appreciate other cultures and countries.

Activity introduction

Through activities, children of mixed ages explored different special activities on campus in the form of "big hands holding small hands", such as simulated moon cake making, solving riddles, fashion shows, playing various ball games, etc. In addition, to understand the customs of the Mid-Autumn Festival, they also learnt to respect and appreciate the different cultures.
