Event name

"National Security Education-Children's Outdoor Learning Classroom": Visit Tai Po Waterfront Park

Activity goal

- Deepen understanding of Chinese culture
- Understand and explore different insect species
- Understand the development history of Hong Kong and its relationship with national development
- Enhance students' sense of identity, belonging and responsibility for the country, nation and society

Activity introduction

Through the activities of visiting Tai Po Waterfront Park and the Tower of Return, children learned about the meaning of the "Tower of Return" and observed different insect specimens. This not only allowed students to deepen their understanding of Chinese culture, but also encouraged them to conduct more outdoor observations and get in touch with the country. History also broadens students' learning areas and enhances their interest in learning in all aspects.
