《Dragon Year Welcomes the Spring and New Year》

Activity Goals

- Let children experience the lively and joyful atmosphere of the New Year.
- Learn about the traditional customs and culture associated with the Chinese Lunar New Year."
- Encourage children to develop the skills to participate in activities and learn independently.
- Learn how to care for children of different ages and teach them to care for each other.

Activity Introduction

The event involves children holding hands and freely participating in various New Year greeting stalls on campus. These stalls include New Year flower stalls with hundreds of blooming flowers, a sweet New Year, twelve zodiac signs, a luck match, and more. Children can enjoy spring music with each other and listen to speeches together. They can also indulge in delicious food and enjoy gongs and drums, just like they would on New Year's Eve. Additionally, there will be lion dance activities to wish everyone a good year and create a traditional New Year's atmosphere.
